Dear «Policy_Holder»

Policy/Contract Number: «Policy_Number»
Your financial adviser: <Agent name>

Retraction of letter entitled; Closure of various FPIL funds (together “the Closing Funds”) to Hong Kong residents and Hong Kong policies (together “Hong Kong investors”)

We wrote to you in April 2022 advising that we were closing various Friends Provident International (“FPIL”) mirror funds held by Hong Kong specific policies/contracts or Hong Kong resident policyholders (together “Hong Kong investors”) that were not part of our Hong Kong specific fund range. This range only contains funds that are authorised by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission (“SFC”). You were identified as a Hong Kong investor, and therefore impacted by the closures and switching of holdings into alternative funds within the Hong Kong specific fund range.

Since we wrote to you, additional analysis regarding the re-classification of policies/contracts and policyholders as Hong Kong investors has been carried out and a strategic decision has been made to cancel the programme of mirror fund switches previously advised in the April 2022 notification, as it is believed that the closure of the Closing Funds to Hong Kong investors is no longer required at this stage.

This means that your policy or contract can continue to hold the funds identified as the Closing Funds, and it will not be necessary to switch your holdings into alternative funds within our Hong Kong specific fund range, at this current time. The fund switch actions detailed in our April 2022 notification will therefore not occur, and your holdings will remain as currently invested.

Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience caused, but hope that you will be pleased that you can continue to retain your selected funds.

Whilst we have cancelled the planned closures and switches, you are of course, still free to switch your holdings free of any switch charge at any time into alternative mirror funds available, should you choose to do so. We recommend that you seek the advice of your usual investment adviser before making any investment decisions.
